USEFUL INFORMATION / CUSTOMS REGULATIONS

1. If any prohibited items are imported without a legal permit they will be confiscated and the Taiwanese government will indict a law suit against the shipper. Thereafter the shipper will be fined at least US$11,000.00 and imprisoned for at least 6 months.
2. Pianos are subject to duties and taxes, approximately 5% of the declared value or depends on the discretion of customs.
3. Used household goods must be shipped into Taiwan within 3 months of owner arrival. The owner should be in Taiwan when the shipment arrives. The owner should get an entry stamp in his / her passport upon arrival. He/she should not go through the express clearance lane.
4. Shipper should complete the Customs Declaration Form given on board the airline, particularly # 2 where you have to indicate that you had a personal effects shipment coming in sea / air to avoid any delays and incurring duty and taxes
5. All wood packaging materials must be with ISPM stamped wood or fumigated. If fumigated, will need fumigation certificate.
6. DOCUMENTS REQUIREMENT FOR INBOUND CLIENT TO CLEAR CUSTOMS:
 - a) Passport copy – Photo and signature page
 - b) Copy of entry stamp inside the passport and the arrival card
 - c) Original signed customs entrusting letter (To be provided upon shipper's arrival)
 - d) Copy of residence ID if holding of a Taiwanese passport
 - e) Copy of work permit or ARC if holding a foreign passport
7. Please declare on OBL/ AWB shipment as: "USED HOUSEHOLD GOODS AND PERSONAL EFFECTS"
8. AUTOMOBILES

Used automobiles may be imported into Taiwan with prearrangement for obtaining import permit issued by Board of Foreign Trade before shipping to Taiwan. The car must be used more than one year and all relevant documents must be under owner's name. The car has to be using unleaded gasoline and only cars with Left Hand Drive can be imported to Taiwan. The following documents are required to obtain an import permit.

 - a) Owner's passport
 - b) Owner's resident certificate
 - c) Working certificate issued by our Government/Ministry of Economic Affairs or the Overseas Taiwanese Embassy
 - d) Original paperwork of the car
9. PETS

The pets should have blood test and the result must be 180 Days thereafter before the pet can be imported to Taiwan.

 - a) Photocopy of owner's passport
 - b) Origin certificates of HEALTH & RABIES VACCINATION from government or state sponsored agency with their seal. (Date on health certificate needs to be within 10 days of pet's departure and date on rabies vaccination needs to be over one month prior to pet's departure)
 - c) Colour Photo of the animal – 6 copies 4" X 6"
 - d) Application form from the Bureau of Commodity Inspection and Quarantine (issued by owner's company in Taiwan)
To apply for an animal import permit to Taiwan, you will need to prepare the above documents at least 14 days prior to arrival. Do not send pets here before obtaining the animal import permit.
10. Upon entry to Taiwan, shipper need to fill out a customs declaration form given during the flight and click/declare that there is a shipment coming in, hence when coming out of immigration, go to RED CHANNEL and give the form to customs. Should shipper forgot to declare the shipment, customs will impose a tax.
